

Three from Macaulay & Burtch Named to Virginia Super Lawyers

RICHMOND, VA (June 23, 2010) – The law firm of Macaulay & Burtch is proud to announce that Jack W. Burtch Jr. (“JB”), Douglas R. Burtch and Michele L. Satterlund have been selected for inclusion in the 2010 edition of Virginia Super Lawyers®.

Only five percent of active licensed attorneys in Virginia are selected for inclusion by publisher Law & Politics after an extensive nomination, peer review and editorial research process.

JB Burtch was recognized as a “Top 50 Virginia Super Lawyer” for the second consecutive year, indicating that he received one of the highest point totals in the selection process. His law practice focuses on representation of businesses and non-profit organizations, executives and professionals, in employment and labor matters.

Douglas Burtch and Michele Satterlund received the added distinction as “Virginia Super Lawyer Rising Stars.” Burtch’s practice focuses on employment and labor law. Satterlund’s practice focuses on government relations, regulatory matters, public policy and employment law.

About Macaulay & Burtch, P.C.

Macaulay & Burtch, P.C. lawyers and lobbyists serve small businesses, large corporations, associations and individuals in employment and labor law, government affairs and health care. For more information, call (804) 649-4009 or visit www.macbur.com.